

Guidelines for Campaign Literature EACC Elections

Campaign literature will not contain any obscenity or foul language. Literature will not contain libelous remarks about specific individuals.

Association office equipment and supplies (Xerox, paper, membership lists, staff, etc.) will not be used by candidates. Any campaign literature sent via the interschool pony using the Association's privileges will be approved by the Nominations, Elections, and Credential Committee. Candidates shall submit proposed literature to the Committee Chairperson, Richard Kelly, at the EACC office. Literature will be approved/disapproved within two days. Guidelines for literature will be included with the nomination form.

The Association Representative will not be required to distribute campaign literature but may volunteer to do so. The Chairperson of the NEC Committee will provide candidates with a list of persons in each school who have agreed to distribute literature. Nevertheless, it is the responsibility of the candidate to ensure that his/her literature has been distributed properly.
