

2019 EACC ELECTIONS

Candidate for EACC Vice President

- ◆ Sean Heyl—McDonough HS— The complete educational needs of Charles County—that is what I would like to address at the local, state, and national level. A safe work environment—that is what I want to recreate for all employees. As vice-president, I can do these things while continuing to build a strong union.

Candidate for EACC Secretary

- ◆ Veronica Golden—Gale-Bailey ES— I am currently an EACC Executive Board Member and would like to further my commitment to the members of EACC by serving as their Secretary. Through my tenure as an Executive Board , GR Committee Chair, and Organizing Team Member I have the experience to lead and to make sure our bylaws are followed with fidelity. Please vote for me!
- ◆ Deidra Baker—Mattawoman MS—

Candidates for Executive Board Members-at-Large

- ◆ Peter Ullmann—Hanson MS— I have been an EACC Representative for the past 6 years, working to ensure that teachers in Charles County receive the best resources, protection, and representation possible. I have attended County Commissioner Budget Hearings and school board meetings, worked at the polls during several election cycles, and faithfully represented Charles County at the MSEA Convention. Please consider voting for me for Executive Board Member-at-Large so that I may enhance my level of service to you. Thank you.
- ◆ Chelsey Herrig—Berry ES— As an early career educator who was elected and served as NEA Chairperson of 55,000 future educators, I would bring a unique and important voice to the executive board. I would like to utilize my experience to improve the retention of early career educators while improving working/learning conditions for all.

Candidates for MSEA Delegates

- ◆ Daniel Brady— McDonough HS—Served as EACC Treasurer for seven years, EACC Board member-at-large for three years after serving as a building representative for five years. I have attended the MSEA convention as a delegate for over a decade and would like to continue to represent local concerns at the state level.
- ◆ Brianna Busch—Indian Head ES— I am an early career educator at Indian Head Elementary School. I want our teachers to have access to as many resources and opportunities for growth as possible. I attended MSEA as a delegate in 2018 and would like to serve again so our voices can be heard.
- ◆ Joseph Daversa— Stone HS
- ◆ Cheryl Ervin—Diggs ES— Integrity, Honesty, Commitment. 42 years as a teacher in Charles County Public Schools and a member of NEA, MSEA and EACC. Currently serving on EACC Executive Board member-at-large. Previously served as a building representative, and a delegate to MSEA Convention.
- ◆ Brooke Hall— North Point HS—I am a Biology and Earth Systems teacher. I have attended the MSEA Convention in the past and really enjoyed the information in the seminars. I have been a member of the EACC since I started teaching in 2016 and would like to start getting more involved.
- ◆ Cindy Hangarter—Indian Head ES— I would like the opportunity to return as a delegate to represent our profession at the MSEA Convention.
- ◆ Heather Hartman-Jansen —Somers MS—Attending the MSEA convention is an opportunity to participate and engage in education issues at the state level. It provides an understanding of what Maryland educators are working to achieve together.
- ◆ Christopher Hawkins—Gale-Bailey ES— My goal is to take information I learn at this convention and take it back to my local school. By taking this information to my school I hope to improve the success of my school and students.
- ◆ Sean Heyl—McDonough HS— I have co-written N.B.I.'s for the last two conventions on topics from discipline to restorative practices, and promoting union activities. I would like to continue to be a delegate on behalf of EACC and address current issues for Charles County and Maryland.
- ◆ Chelsey Herrig—Berry ES— My name is Chelsey Herrig it would be an honor to help propose solutions to the challenges that our early career educators are facing at the MSEA RA. Additionally, I would be honored to work alongside the veteran educators to help improve Charles County schools and ensure our voices are heard at the state level.
- ◆ Christine Jara—La Plata HS—
- ◆ Ruby Lacy—Thomas Stone HS— I have been an active member of the EACC for over 18 years. I have also been a member of PGCEA/ Teacher's union for 7 years. I am a very strong advocate of teacher's rights. I have supported all of the NEA and MSEA goals for teachers. I have been an active participant in marches, workshops and rallying support for our teachers. I have been a representative for EACC at our school, Gwynn Center for 2 years and Thomas Stone for 1 year. My goals are to support teachers' right to be in a work environment that produces children that can be ready to thrive in our society as productive citizens.
- ◆ Will Lewis—St Charles HS— I've served as a delegate to the MSEA Convention the last 4 years. This past convention, I served as the PAC Captain team for EACC. I've enjoyed the experience at convention & would enjoy to continue to serve as a delegate at the 2019 convention.
- ◆ Erin Locke—Middleton ES -
