

2019 EACC June Special Elections

Positions Vacant for 2019 Special Elections:

Two (2) EACC Executive Board Members-at-Large /Two (2) Year Terms: 7/1/2019 – 7/1/2021

Deidra Baker - Mattawoman MS

Educators are the first line of defense in equipping our future. My intentions are to support the front line, equip the future, promote transparency and quality for all stake holders in uplifting the educational pillars of our community. Every student should be equipped for success and independence.

Michelle Darty—Hanson MS

Michelle Darty began teaching with CCPS over 15 years-ago. She will work effectively for her colleagues to ensure their voice is heard and their issues are addressed. As a K-12-teacher, Michelle gained invaluable-insight and wants to improve our schools for students-teachers-and-parents. She has-a BS-Biology, a MS-Biotechnology and APC-MD-state teaching certificate. Vote-For-Me-Please.

Will Lewis—St Charles HS

This is my 4th year as a Building Rep. I've served as a delegate to the RA MSEA Convention, worked on the Organizing and Government Relations committees, and advocated for members at Commissioners and BOE meetings. I would like to continue advocating for members on the Executive Board.

Denise Pratt—Brown ES

As an active member of the EACC, I serve as the co-chair of the Organizing Committee, member of the Government Relations Committee, and I am a building rep. I have represented the EACC at the MSEA RA and also attended the NEA RA for four years as a MSEA/EACC delegate.

Christina Stephens Mt Hope/Nanjemoy ES

I have been a Member of the EACC Arizona for 5 years, 1 year in Maryland. I have been a leader and supporter of the Arizona #RedforEd movement. I was published in the Arizona School Counselor Association for my advocacy for the #RedforEd movement where I was proud to help support my fellow educators.
